STANLEY MOTTA – President of Copa Holdings

Biography

Mr. Stanley Motta is a Panamanian businessman involved in many activities. He is presently Chairman of the Board of Copa Holdings (NYSE symbol CPA) the parent of Copa Airlines based in Panama and Copa Colombia Airlines based in Colombia.

As Chairman of Grupo Financiero Continental he negotiated a merger with Banco General to form BG Financial Holdings in early 2007 thus forming the largest privately held bank in the region. He continues as President of Motta Internacional a wholesale distributor and operator of Duty Free Stores in the region.

Mr. Motta was Chairman of Autoridad de la Region Interoceanica (ARI) until May 2000. This was a government entity that received all the assets that were not part of the Panama Canal Operations as a result of the Torrijos-Carter Treaty between the United States and Panama.

Mr. Motta resides in Panama and continues to be active in many industries including television, auto distribution and insurance. He is trustee of ANCON, a non-profit organization dedicated to conserving biodiversity, and the innovative Ciudad del Saber (City of Knowledge) in Panama. He is also the founder and trustee of the Central American Leadership Initiative (CALI) and is Chairman of Sumarse, an organization for the promotion of Corporate Social Responsibility. Additionally, Mr. Motta is a Board member of the Trust for The Americas associated with the Organization of American States and Advisory Board of EGADE Business School (Tecnologico de Monterrey) and the IESE Business School in Barcelona, Spain.